

Report on the Women's Day Celebration

Day on March 8, 2025.

Date of Event: 8 March, 2025

Organizers: Women Cell, SDDK Mahavidyalaya

Venue: SDDKM Virtual Room

Programme Report The Women's Cell of Swami Dhananjoy Das Kathiababa Mahavidyalaya, in collaboration with Bishnupur Police, organized a special programme on International Women's Day on 8th March 2025. The event took place in the Virtual Room of the college and saw enthusiastic participation from students, faculty members, and distinguished guests.

The programme commenced with an inaugural speech by Dr. Kakali Ghosh Sengupta, Principal of the College, who highlighted the importance and significance of Women's Day. She emphasized the need for gender equality and the empowerment of women in all spheres of life.

The chief guest, Atanu Hazra, Inspector-in-Charge of Bishnupur Police Station, addressed the gathering and shared his valuable insights on women's safety and security. He stressed the role of law enforcement in ensuring a safe environment for women and encouraged students to be aware of their rights.

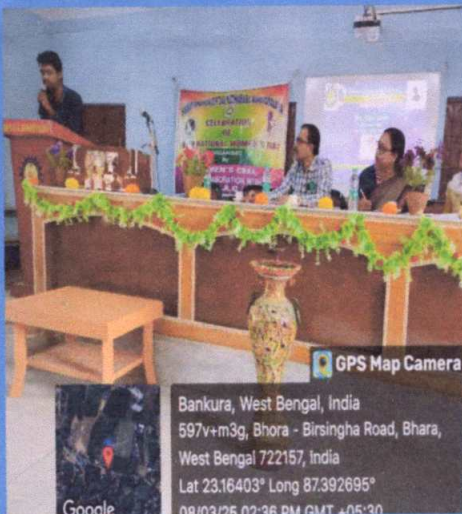

Sri Gorapada Dey, President of the Governing Body of the College, spoke about the importance of gender equality and the need for equal rights for men and women. His speech inspired students to contribute toward a more just and equitable society.

The event was successfully hosted and conducted by Dr. Mahuya Bandyopadhyay, Convenor of the Women's Cell. She ensured a smooth flow of discussions and engaged the audience in meaningful conversations about women's empowerment.

The programme witnessed active participation from nearly 100 students, who interacted with the speakers and shared their views on gender equality and women's rights.

The celebration concluded with a vote of thanks, acknowledging the efforts of the organizers, guest speakers, and participants. The event was a great success, reinforcing the commitment of Swami Dhananjoy Das Kathiababa Mahavidyalaya toward the empowerment and well-being of women.
